

teachers

Hugh Dellar
University of Westminster

HAPPY
EASTER WITH THOMSON
AND CenterCom

14:30

Registration

15:00

Hugh Dellar

The Curse of Creativity

The concept of creativity casts a long shadow in EFL. We are constantly urged to become more creative as teachers - and to engender creativity in our students. However, the real key to success lies in doing the mundane well - and in encouraging our students to do the same. In this talk, I shall explore both why and how!

15:40

John Parsons

A Quick Way to Success with IELTS - IELTS Express

16:20

Break

with Easter eggs and biscuits and traditional strongest egg competition

16:50

Hugh Dellar

Teaching the Know-Alls: What Do Advanced Students Really Need?

Advanced students can have a 'been there, done that' attitude, which many coursebooks seem to counteract with heavy literary texts, 'difficult' vocabulary and tasks akin to applied linguistics. In this talk I question if this is what advanced-level students really need either academically or socially, and outline how we took a different tack when writing Innovations Advanced.

17:30

Present Time

You will have to choose between an Easter kiss from John Parsons to get an Easter gift of IELTS Express or the same kiss from Hugh Dellar to get a new level of Innovations Both will be more than happy to sign it for you..

