

Thomson ELT Product Overview Part 4

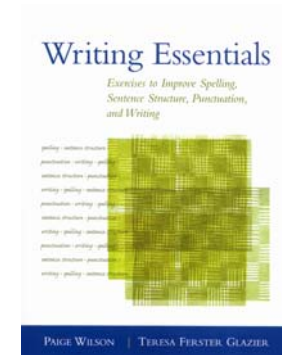

The voice of experience...the face of change

September, 2007

THOMSON
™

English for Academic Purposes

- Academic Writing
- Academic Reading
- Academic Listening & Notetaking
- Academic Vocabulary

Destinations 2

- Level: Upper Intermediate
- Academic Writing course which bridges gap between skills build and working with authentic materials

Sourcework

- Level: Advanced
- Advanced writing course ideal for postgraduate or students writing dissertations/thesis.

Writing Essentials

- Level: Intermediate to Advanced
- Self study writing practice book. Short exercises covering spelling, punctuation, style and grammar.

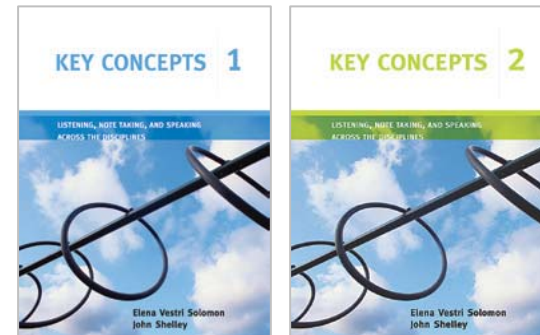

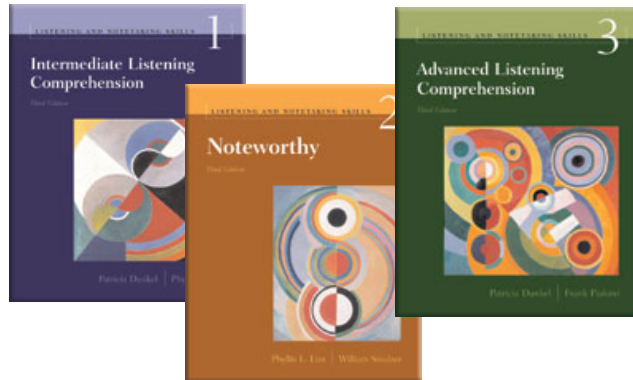

Steps to Academic Reading

- Level: Elementary to Advanced
- Academic texts support this reading course. Higher levels emphasise importance of critical thinking

Reading For Today Series

- Level: Elementary to Advanced
- CNN based texts support this reading skills course. Higher levels emphasise importance of critical thinking. Has accompanying Audio, DVD and ExamView CD-Rom (sold separately)

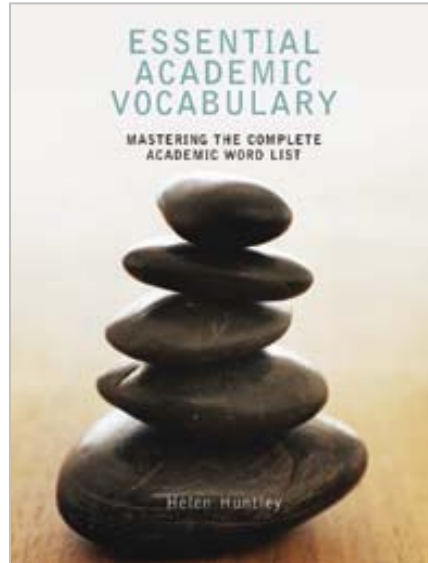

Academic Listening & Notetaking Series

- (Level: Intermediate to Advanced)
- Three level academic listening course. Book 1 focused on listening skills, Book 2 focuses on note-taking skills and Book 3 reviews these skills at a more advanced level. The series is based around academic lectures from multiple disciplines and is accompanied by both Audio and DVD (sold separately)

Key Concepts Listening Series

(Level: Intermediate to Upper-Intermediate)

- Two level academic listening course. These books are based on academic lectures and source material across multiple academic disciplines. Each book contains practice and skills build for listening and note-taking. An audio CD is included with each of the books.

Academic Listening & Notetaking Series

- (Level: Intermediate to Advanced)
- Engaging academic readings highlight unit by unit vocabulary in context.
- From chapter to chapter the reading and vocabulary increase in difficulty
- Covers the entire academic word list.
- Ideal for self-study or classroom use.